

Wed 21/09/2011

In reading the draft of proposed registration standards, I am very impressed with the work done. Every topic addressed is covered well.

The expectations appear realistic and the required practice evidence of 5 years is appropriate. I am sure most practitioners will experience a relatively smooth registration process.

Sincerely

Shane Edwards (Acupuncturist).